

JONNY LEE MILLER

meets Jonah's Just Begun

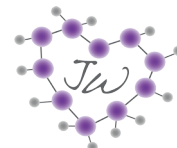

Jonny plays Sherlock in the new hit show Elementary. Jonny first learned about Jonah's Just Begun, when Jeremy Weishaar a camera man on Elementary asked him to support a local fundraiser. As Jonny learned more and more about the horrific situation that Jeremy and his family faced he was compelled to do something. Running his first ultra-marathon (50 Miles) in May 2013, raising $120,000 for medical research. Jonny did not stop there, he followed up with a second ultra-marathon and on July 5th 2014, he will run 50 miles through the streets of NYC.

Jonny's compassion and commitment to helping JJB fund a treatment for Sanfilippo has gone beyond running marathons. Jonny has leant his celebrity to appeal to the masses by appearing on the View and CNN's Dr. Sanjay Gupta. Jonny also accompanied Jonah's Mom, Jill Wood to D.C. where they spoke to our countries legislators on behalf of the Rare Disease Congressional Caucus. Most recently Jonny and Kristine Johnson, anchor person for CBS 2 hosted JJB's first NYC annual "Rare Occurrence Reception."
